HIMACHAL PRADESH HIGH COURT

NOTIFICATION

Simla-1, the 6th November; 1979

No. HHC Admn 22(6)/78.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (2) of rule 9-A Order XXXIII of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, as amended Article 227 of the Constitution of India, and all other powers enabling it in this behalf, the High Court of Himachal Pradesh, with previous approval of the State Government of Himachal Pradesh, makes the following rules for regulating the appointment of Pleaders to represent indigent persons in Civil Suits namely:—

PART I

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Legal Aid to the Indigent persons (Himachal Pradesh High Court) Rules, 1979.

(2) These rules shall come into force with immediate effect.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

(a) "High Court" means the High Court of Himachal Pradesh at Simla;

(b) "pleader" includes any person whose name is entered on the rolls of the Bar Council of Himachal Pradesh maintained under the Advocates Act, 1961, and the Rules framed thereunder;

(c) "List" means the list of Advocates prepared and maintained by the District Judge separately for each Sub-Division of the District under these rules, willing to appear for the undefended indigent persons in civil suits at State Expense or free of charges.

(d) "Code" means the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, as amended from time to time.

PART II

3. Assignment of Advocate for indigent persons.—(1) Where a person, who is permitted by a Court to sue or a person who desires to plead a set off or counter-claim in a suit filed against him as an indigent person under sub-rule (3) of rule 7 and rule 17, respectively, of Order XXXIII of the Code, is not represented by a pleader the Presiding Officer of the Court shall, if the circumstances of the case so required, assign a Pleader to him from the list.

(2) In any case where it is decided to assign a pleader under sub-rule (1), the Court shall endeavour in the first instance to select a suitable advocate from the first part of the list mentioned in sub-rule (4) of Part III, failing which the persons from the II Part of the list will be appointed.

PART III

4. Preparation of list.—(1) The District Judge shall prepare and maintain a list of 3 to 10 suitable advocates willing to appear for the undefended indigent persons at the State expense or without charging any fee separately for each Sub-Division of the district in relation to which he exercises jurisdiction, after consultation with the senior most judicial officer for the time being posted at the headquarters of each such sub-division and the President of the Bar Association of that place.

(2) The list to be prepared and maintained under sub-rule (1) shall be in two parts. The first part of the list shall contain the names of suitable advocates who offer themselves to appear for the undefended indigent person(s) without charging any fee and part two thereof shall have the names of such advocates as are willing to appear such persons at State expense and are selected for the purpose.

(3) An advocate with a standing of not less than three years at the Bar shall be eligible for being brought on the list under sub-rule (1). The District Judge shall, so far as may be, persuade competent senior lawyers to enlist themselves for representing indigent persons without charging any fee.

(4) The District Judge shall revise the list in the month of December in each year.

(5) The District Judge, shall in the month of January in each year, communicate the names of the advocates in the list maintained for each Sub-Division of his District(s) to the High Court in the following form:—

(1) Name of the Advocate.

(2) Date of birth.

(3) Qualification: University Degrees. Distinctions earned in Law (if any).

(4) Date of enrolment at the Bar.

(5) Length of actual practice.

(6) The Registrar shall cause the names on the list for each district to be entered separately in a Register.

(7) The District Judge or the High Court may strike off the name of any advocate from the list without assigning any reason.

PART IV

5. Facilities to Advocates selected from the list.—(1) Where an advocate is assigned to represent an indigent person at State expense or otherwise, the Court shall allow a period of at least seven days to the advocates to prepare the brief and shall adjourn the hearing of the case for that purpose.

(2) The Court shall allow, free of costs inspection of the records of the case by the Advocate so assigned.

(3) The Court, where the deposition of witness is recorded by a stenographer during trial shall, supply copies of such depositions to the Advocate so appointed free of costs.

PART V

6. Scale of fees.—(1) The ordinary fee payable to an advocate assigned to represent an indigent person at State expense, shall not be less than Rs. 50 and not more than Rs. 300 for the entire case, at the discretion of the Presiding Officer of the Court.

(2) In special cases, the District Judge may add any reasonable amount to the ordinary fee allowed by sub-rule (1) with the prior concurrence of the High Court.

(3) If an advocate assigned to represent an indigent person is required to retire at any time after the engagement of an advocate by the indigent person at his own expense, he shall be entitled to get the minimum of the amount of fee fixed under sub-rule 1 above as compensation, or such other amount as the Presiding Officer in his discretion may allow subject to maximum fixed in sub-rule (1).

7. Maintenance of diary by Advocates engaged at State expense.—An Advocate engaged to represent an indigent person in any Court subordinate to the High Court at State expense shall, at the conclusion of each day of hearing in the case, prepare and submit for counter-signatures by the Presiding Officer of the Court a diary containing following details fully set out:—

| Date | The name and title of the case | Name of the party | Duration of hearing |
|------|--------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------|
| 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 |

| Work done | Signature of the Presiding Officer | Remarks |
|-----------|------------------------------------|---------|
| 5 | 6 | 7 |

8. Payment of fees.—(1) The District Judge shall be the controlling officer for the payment and audit of all fees due to advocates engaged to represent indigent persons in courts subordinate to the High Court. The fee shall be debitable to the Major Head "214—Administration of Justice Civil and Session Courts payment of Professional and Special Services".

(2) The Advocates shall submit their bills to the District Judge within one month of the disposal of the case by the Court or such other extended time the District Judge may allow.

PART VI

9. Recovery of fee.—(1) Where an indigent person succeeds in the suit or counter claim filed by him and is awarded costs, the Court shall direct that the pleader's fee paid to advocate under rule 3 of the Sub-Rule (1) of Part-II shall be included in the memo of costs appended to the decree-sheet and that amount shall be ordered recovered from the said person and the said amount shall be the first charge on the subject matter of the decree.

(2) The amount of fee recovered shall be deposited in the Government account under the proper head of "Receipts".

(3) The District Judge shall submit to the High Court quarterly statement regarding the amount so recovered under sub-rule 9(1) with particulars of the case.
